Dear Reader,

This little booklet is simply a compilation of Scriptures for you to meditate on, speak, and declare over your life.

Declaring what the word says about you is not a magical formula or incantation, but there IS power – life giving power – in the spoken word!

The book of Hebrews tells us the word is alive and powerful, sharper than a two-edged sword, and that it is able to help us discern what is in our hearts, and to see truth.

When you say what God says about your situation, or about yourself, it's like planting a seed in the soil of your heart that will sprout, grow, and begin to produce fruit in your life!

Read it. Speak it. Believe it. – And you will surely see your faith in God's promises rise!

Be Blessed!

The Proverbs 31

Woman

Start with this simple prayer,

“Lord, I purpose in my heart to believe what your word says about me, and about my circumstances. As I say what the Bible says about me, I ask you Holy Spirit to join together with me. Open up the truth of this word to my spirit, and help me to see what you see. As I speak these words, I believe they are taking root in my heart, and that I will see the fruit of the word produced in my life.”

In Jesus Name I Pray,

AMEN!

The Woman God Created Me to Be

I am a virtuous and capable wife. My worth is far above rubies. The heart of my husband safely trusts me; so he will have no lack of gain. I do my husband good and not evil all the days of my life.

I seek wool and flax and I willingly work with my hands. I am like the merchant ships, I bring food from afar. I also RISE while it is yet night (in adversity), and I provide food for my household and a portion for my maidservants.

I consider a field and buy it; from my profits I plant a vineyard. (I make wise business decisions that yield a profit!)

I gird myself with strength and strengthen my arms (I am energetic and strong, a hard worker).

I make sure my dealings are profitable, and my lamp burns late into the night. My hands are busy spinning thread and my fingers twisting fiber.

I extend my hand to the poor. Yes, I reach out my hand to the needy.

I AM NOT AFRAID of snow for my household. For all my household is clothed with scarlet. I make tapestries for myself. My clothing is fine linen and purple.

My husband is known in the gates when he sits among the elders of the land. I make linen garments and sell them, and supply sashes for the merchants.

Strength and honor are my clothing; I shall rejoice in time to come.

I open my mouth with WISDOM and on my tongue is the law of KINDNESS.

I watch over the ways of my household, and I do not eat the bread of idleness. My children rise up and call me blessed; my husband also, and he praises me,

“Many daughters have done well, but you excel them all.”

Charm is deceitful and beauty is passing, but I fear the Lord and I will be praised! Give me of the fruit of my hands, and let my own works praise me in the gates!
